

WORKSHOP WITH CHRIS SNEDDEN PHOTO EMULSION TRANSFER

Saturday, April 21, 2012

10:00 a.m. – 4 p.m.

at the Lions Centre, Peterborough

KPG Members: $70

Non-members - $90

PLUS MATERIAL FEE OF $50 payable to Chris

Chris will show slides on Friday evening at the Lions Centre, in preparation for the workshop.

Saturday morning will feature a few more slides to review what we are going to do during the day. He will then demonstrate monoprinting with a slip trailer and how he prints on paper with rubber stamps to make some transfers. Then the "big reveal".

Complete demonstration of how to make silkscreens using a photo silkscreen emulsion.

Participants will then prepare their pots at a leather hard stage to apply their own transfers. Some ideas of how to approach the images on pots and some ideas combining paper resits, as well as slip decorating techniques to create depth and variety will be reviewed.

Chris will bring slips and rubber stamps for our use, as well as pre-made silkscreen images, screens and squeegees. Participants will need to provide Chris with photos prior to the workshop (more details later). Coffee and snacks will be provided. Potluck lunch at noon. Bring your own plates and cutlery.

Chris Snedden has been a potter for over 25 years in the London area and has worked in almost every facet of the pottery business, from building electric kilns and teaching courses and workshops, to producing and distributing giftware for the international market. Currently, Chris is Ceramics Professor at Lambton College in Sarnia, as well as for the London Potters Guild, where he also serves as Workshop Chair and is Technician at the London Clay Art Centre.
